Topic: Alice Francis

Alice Francis was a real person, living in Victorian Swansea, and recorded on the 1851 census. She would have lived through many of the changes in 19th Century Swansea. She lived in Morris Lane. We have pretended she is the woman shown in paintings we have in the museum by William Butler, dated 1850-1, showing Morris and nearby Castle Lane.

The day in the museum

Your class gets to meet Alice! Firstly in costume and character, then the children meet Val Williams (who plays Alice) and find out how she researched the part. The pupils explore sources – handling objects, paintings, photographs, etc., in the galleries, out of cases, etc. It is a great way to study Victorians and changes in daily life. There is a resource pack for use before or after the visit.
